DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human af-flictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure, and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kid-neys to do double work, they be-come weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheuma-tism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.
Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Blacky the Crow Laughs Himself Almost Sick.

ever has a good, honest laugh every for friends. It seemed to Blacky the Crow that he hadn't had a good, honest laugh for months and months. In fact, since the beginning of winter Getting a living in winter is pretty over. It made his heart rejoice to look over the Green Meadows and see that gentle Sister South Wind had swept away all the snow. It made him glad all over to hear the sound of the Laughing Brook once more. He needed but a good laugh to make him quite his old self. And though he had no idea of it he was even now had no idea of it he was even now flying straight toward it.

Some time before he had seen Farmer Brown's Boy enter the Green Forest. Blacky had been busy at the time, but he had noticed the direction in which Farmer Brown's boy had gone, and, having nothing else to do, he was flying that way to see what had become of him. He saw nothing of him until he came in sight of the great rock deep in the Green Forest under which, unknown to any one but Peter Rabbit and Billy Mink, Buster Bear had gone to sleep for the winter. Farmer Brown's Boy was on top of the great rock, resting. Blacky decided that he would rest, too, so he stopped in the top of a tall pine tree where he could watch.

Blacky was getting a little impatient when at last Farmer Brown's Boy stord up and stretched.

Blacky was getting a little impatient when at last Farmer Brown's Boy stood up and stretched. Then for a few minutes he stood looking down at a great bank of snow along the foot of the great rock. You see, the snow had been piled so deep there that gentle Sister South Wind, having no help from jolly, bright Mr. Sun, because of the shade from many trees, had not been able to clear it all away, though she was working very hard at it.

Suddenly Farmer Brown's Boy jumped. He jumped straight down into the

ALLOWS TWO LIBEL CLAIMS.

Judge Rose Gives Judgments Against the Burned Maryland.

Judge Rose of the United States district court for Maryland, rendered an oral decision Monday in the libel suits of the Maryland Transportation Company and the Chesapeake Marine Railway Company, against the burned steamer Maryland of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atjantic Railway Com-Chesapeake and Atjantic Railway Company for aid rendered the vessel while on fire. Under the decision, the first named company gets $1,000, and the marine railway was allowed $506.04.

The testimony showed that the tugs of the Maryland Transportation Company were instrumental in extinguishing the flames on the vessel and in towing the burned hulk ashore, and that the claim of the marine railway company was based on taking charge of the hulk at the shipyard. Recently the burned hulk of the vessel was sold at public auction, under order of the United States court, for $3.125 and out of the balance remaining after paying off the two claims adjudicated all other claims will have to be settled.

MICHAEL C. DRENNAN DEAD. Retired Officer of the Navy With Civil War Record.

Medical Director Michael C. Drennau, U. S. N., retired, died at his home, in Easton, Pa., yesterday in the seventyseventh year of his age. He entered the navy as an assistant surgeon in April, 1863, and during the civil war the St. Lawrence and the Emma: subsequently served on the Vermont and sequently served on the vermont and the New York; on recruiting duty, New York; on recruiting duty at Chicago, and at the marine recruiting rendez-vous, Philadelphia. He was transferred to the retired list of the navy from October 24, 1899, on account of physical disability resulting from an incident of the service, with the rank of ad-miral, in recognition of his civil war service.

Will Inspect European Hospitals. Secretary Daniels today designated Surgeon Archibald M. Fauntleroy, atached to the Naval Medical Hospital here, to make an observation tour of the war hospitals of France, Belgium and England. Dr. Fauntleroy, who is naval surgeons, recently performed an operation for appendicitis upon Secretary McAdoo of the Treasury. Another naval surgeon, Dr. Carl Ohnesorg, assistant to the American naval attache at Berlin, has been observing German medical methods for some time.
